HC-CBLB PRAYER - YOKED TO JESUS (OUR RABBI and OX)
Heaven Meets Earth

His yoke empowers us to become easy, to mandate you to walk with Him, to authorize you, to display Him so He can reveal you to the World.

Step into the Presence of God:

Father, I want to thank You that today Your son opened up a window for me to come into the realm of Your presence. Jesus, by faith, I step through that veil and enter into the world of the realm of Your presence. Jesus today, according to Your word, Your word tells me to take Your yoke upon me so Lord, by faith today, in the name of Yeshua, I take Your Yoke upon my life. Father, I willingly, and out of desire, yoke myself to the OX of God.

Lord, I ask that You would begin to train me and take me into all that I need to come into so I am able to do what You do. Father, I ask that You would ignore all of my little rebellious traumas; that You ignore everything I would try to do to distract You from the goal that is in Your heart for my life.

Father, by faith I put that yoke over me and I lash it to the Ox of my Father. Jesus, today I yoke myself willingly to You as my Rabbi. Lord, I ask that You would put a pole between us so when I find it slippery and begin to fall, You would become my burden bearer, that You would bear me up upon the wings of an eagle, like a mother eagle with her children, teaching them how to fly. Lord, teach me how to mount up on wings of eagles because I am yoked to my Father’s presence. Lord, I ask that You would lead me and teach me how to be guided from behind by Your presence.

Lord, as I go through this process, I ask for grace to be assigned to me. Lord, that You would empower me, equip me, authorize me, mandate me, and reveal me, to the nature of Your kingdom and Your person. Lord, I want to do what You do. I want to see what You do, and I want to walk with You shoulder to shoulder. Today, Lord, I yoke myself freely out of my own will and out of my desire; I yoke myself to You. I join myself to Your purpose, written for me before I was in the earth. Father, thank You.

Today by faith I give you fresh ownership of everything I have in my life as I am yoked to You as my Rabbi; You become the carrier of all that I have. Lord, I willingly lay down everything I have to serve Your kingdom in whatever fashion You desire, and in whatever field You want. I lay my life down Jesus to be yoked to Your presence, that I might be covered with the dust of the Glory of Your feet, that I may walk holy because You walk before me as my Rabbi. Jesus, thank You that today I am yoked to You. Father, there is now no turning back! I am heading towards my destiny and my purpose because that is in Your eye as well Father. Thank You for great grace assigned to my life thus far; that great grace would take me on. All that I have, all that I would become to bear your image, so I can look like my Father, walk like Him, be like Him, and be able to do what He is doing. In Jesus’ name.

Father, I step back into this world and I bring the yoke of the Kingdom World of my Father back with me. Father, I put my shoulder against the yoke and plow today. I begin to walk with You Father to come into alignment with Your will to come into alignment with Your purpose to come into alignment with Your desire for my life. Father, I put my hands to the plow and I walk into my future carrying the testimony of my Father, able to bear me where I am not able to bear me myself. In Jesus’ name.¹²

¹ Ian Clayton
² For use by Heavens Call - Creative Blue Light Beings with permission from Ian Clayton